

"Jack Hardman"

(words by Bruce "All the Way" Buzza)

Jack Hardman Jack Hardman
Oh where do you roam?
You're always out roamin'
Your wife's on the phone
The lake it has dried up and the horses they're dead
Jack Hardman Jack Hardman
Please get out of bed

Jack Hardman Jack Hardman
Oh where do you roam?
John Bruno has fainted
Nardozzi's gone home
Your daughter is crying
The kids they need fed
Jack Hardman Jack Hardman
Please get out of bed

Jack Hardman Jack Hardman
Oh where do you roam?
Bill Schachter's out writing
the words to a poem
Buzza he's on a smoke break
And Braum he's all alone
They're drivin' him crazy
Jack Hardman Jack Hardman come home

Jack Hardman Jack Hardman
Do we need you now
The camp is on crutches
It's touchin' the ground
Come Lead us to victory
We know that you can
Jack Hardman Jack Hardman
Please - Come make a stand
